AUSTRALIA'S TOP RECRUITERS CELEBRATED AND RECOGNISED

THE recruitment industry last night recognised its best and brightest at the SEEK Annual Recruitment Awards (SARAs) in Sydney.

Now in its ninth year, the SARAs acknowledge the outstanding performance of recruitment agencies across Australia. These prestigious awards also give jobseekers the chance to vote for the agency they deem most successful in candidate placement and delivering the best client service.

A record number of jobseeker votes were received this year.

The winning agencies in each category are:

Callaways Executive Selection	Executive Recruiter
Kelly Services	Large Specialist Recruiter
Marks Sattin	Medium Specialist Recruiter
RecruitR	Small Specialist Recruiter
Adecco Group	Large Generalist Recruiter
Sinclair Consulting	Medium Generalist Recruiter
Metier Recruitment	Small Generalist Recruiter
Talent International	Large IT Recruiter
M& T Resources	Medium IT Recruiter
LikeIT Recruitment	Small IT Recruiter

This year, three agencies will join Davidson recruitment, Majer recruitment, Six Degrees Executive and Itcom for the prestigious SARA Legends – an accolade for recruiters who achieve consistent excellence in their respective categories for three years in a row. New inductees to this exclusive group are Kelly Services, Metier Recruitment and RecruitR.

SEEK Managing Director Joe Powell said it was important to recognise excellence in Australia's recruitment industry.

“The SARAs provide us with the opportunity to reward the hard work of recruitment agencies throughout 2011 and recognise the critical role they play in supporting jobseekers through what can often be a challenging process.”

“The winning agencies have been recognised for their outstanding levels of service to SEEK's jobseekers. We congratulate all of winners and runners up of the 2011 SARAs.” Joe Powell said.
